Call of By-Election

Pursuant to subsection 35(b) of The Legislative Assembly and Executive Council Act, Mr. Dwain Lingenfelter, New Democratic Party, Sask. Section, vacated his seat in the constituency of Regina Elphinstone on August 31, 2000. On January 29, 2001, pursuant to an Order of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, a Writ of Election was issued by the Chief Electoral Officer to Mr. Reginald Sabiston, constituency returning officer. The Writ ordered that the by-election be held on Monday, February 26, 2001. An Election Calendar for the Regina Elphinstone by-election is included on the last page of the Official Report.

Prior to the January 29, 2001 by-election, standing in the Legislative Assembly included: 28 New Democrat, 26 Saskatchewan Party, 2 Liberal, 1 Independent and 1 vacant.

Constituency Boundaries

The Regina Elphinstone constituency boundary was enacted in 1994 under The Representation Act, 1994, on the recommendation of the Constituency Boundaries Commission, 1993, as established under The Constituency Boundaries Act, 1993. Polling divisions for purposes of the Regina Elphinstone by-election included forty-five (45) regular polls. The Regina Elphinstone constituency polling subdivision map and Directory of Communities are set out in Appendices I and VI, respectively.

Registered Political Party and Candidate Nomination

At the time of the Regina Elphinstone by-election, the Office recognized the existence of six (6) political parties in the Register of Political Parties, as maintained pursuant to section 231 of The Election Act, 1996 (the "Act"). On February 10, 2001, nomination of candidates concluded. At close of nomination, only five (5) of the Province's registered political parties nominated candidates, as follows:

Candidate	Registered Political Party[1]	Abbreviation
Warren McCall	New Democratic Party, Sask. Section	New Democratic Party (N.D.P.)
Stanley J. Klyne	New Green Alliance	New Green Alliance (NGA)
Robert Ermel	Saskatchewan Liberal Association	Liberal
Brendan Cross	The First Nations Party of Saskatchewan	First Nations Party; F.N.P.
Morris Elfenbaum	The Saskatchewan Party	The Saskatchewan Party

Each of the registered political parties' chief official agents and candidate business managers for the by-election were as follows:

Registered Political Party	Chief Official Agent
New Democratic Party, Sask. Section	Catherine Duncan
New Green Alliance	Donna Nelson

1 The following Regina Elphinstone By-Election Appendices abbreviate the names of the Province's registered political parties as follows: New Democratic Party, Sask. Section - N.D.P.; New Green Alliance - NGA; Saskatchewan Liberal Association - L.; The First Nations Party of Saskatchewan - F.N.P.; The Saskatchewan Party - Sask.

Saskatchewan Liberal Association	Allen J. Goudie
The First Nations Party of Saskatchewan	Laura Cross
The Saskatchewan Party	Donald Morgan

Warren McCall (N.D.P.)	Cam Blachford
Stanley J. Klyne (NGA)	Donna Nelson
Robert Ermel (L.)	Debbie Meyers
Brendan Cross (F.N.P.)	Laura Cross
Morris Elfenbaum (Sask.)	Clay Reich

Enumeration

From the 29th of January through to the 7th of February, enumeration of eligible electors was conducted for the constituency's forty-five polling divisions. Pursuant to section 26 of the Act, constituency enumerators sat on February 22, 2001 to make necessary revisions to the voters' lists. As a result of these efforts, 7,334 Regina Elphinstone residents were declared eligible to vote, as established on the revised voters' list. In addition, pursuant to section 68 of the Act, eligible electors not included on the revised voters' list were entitled to vote by declaration.

Polling

To facilitate the electorate's participation in the Regina Elphinstone by-election, an advance poll was conducted on the 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd and 24th of February. Regular polling stations were open from 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. CST on February 26, 2001, enabling the constituency's 7,334 eligible voters the opportunity to exercise their democratic franchise. Eligible voters unable to attend either a regular or advance poll were entitled to vote by absentee ballot.

Electoral Results

Unofficial electoral results were announced on the evening of February 26, 2001, resulting in Mr. Warren McCall, New Democrat, being declared member elect. Deposits were forfeited by the Liberal, New Green Alliance and First Nations Party candidates, pursuant to section 47 of the Act, for not obtaining at least one half of the total number of valid votes cast for the candidate elected.

On March 10, 2001, the constituency returning officer tabulated the results of votes cast by way of advance poll and absentee ballot. These figures were then reflected in the constituency results concluding the final count. Upon completion of the final count, on March 21, 2001, the constituency returning officer made a Return to the Writ of Election. On March 30, 2001, the Office published in The Saskatchewan Gazette (Vol. 97, No. 13) notice of receipt of the Return to the Writ and the name of the candidate elected.

Registered Political Party and Candidate Financial Reporting

Pursuant to section 251 of the Act, audited Registered Political Party's Return of Election Expenses, Form E-524, were required to be filed with the Chief Electoral Officer within six (6) months of polling day (August 27, 2001). Under section 261 of the Act, candidates were required to file an audited Candidate's Return of Election Expenses, Form E-412, with the constituency returning officer, for subsequent forwarding to the Chief Electoral Officer, within three (3) months of the candidate returned being declared elected (June 11, 2001). Pursuant to the Act, the constituency returning officer published, in prescribed form, a summary of Messrs. McCall, Klyne, Ermel and Elfenbaums' returns respecting candidate election expenses prior to July 11, 2001.

i) Registered Political Parties

As a southern constituency, the maximum amount of money that could be spent by a registered political party in the Regina Elphinstone by-election, as set out in section 243 of the Act, was (a) the sum of $34,900.00 or (b) the sum obtained by multiplying the number of voters in the constituency (7,334) by $2.79, whichever sum was larger. A registered political party that endorsed a candidate who obtained fifteen (15) per cent or more of all valid votes cast in the by-election and whose chief official agent filed a Registered Political Party's Return of Election Expenses,[2] pursuant to section 264 of the Act, was entitled to receive a reimbursement of a portion of its election expenses from the Province's General Revenue Fund. The amount reimbursed to a qualifying political party was the lesser of either (a) $11,633.33 or (b) one third of its election expenses.

All participating parties in the Regina Elphinstone by-election filed their duly audited Registered Political Party's Return of Election Expenses on or before August 27, 2001. Contributions made to political parties are not listed in the Registered Political Party's Return of Election Expenses but are set out in each party's fiscal period return, filed in accordance with section 250 of the Act. Appendix II sets out a summary of eligible expenses incurred by the registered political parties in Regina Elphinstone and the amounts paid in respect of each party who qualified for reimbursement.

ii) Candidates

Candidates seeking election in Regina Elphinstone were limited in the amount of money that they could expend. Again, as a southern constituency, a candidate seeking election was entitled to spend, pursuant to section 252 of the Act, either (a) the sum of $41,881.00 or (b) the sum obtained by multiplying the number of eligible voters in the constituency by $2.79, whichever sum was larger. A candidate who obtained fifteen (15) per cent or more of all valid votes cast in Regina Elphinstone and whose business manager filed with the constituency returning officer a Candidate's Return of Election Expenses,[3] pursuant to section 265 of the Act, was entitled to reimbursement of a portion of their eligible election expenses. The amount reimbursed to a qualifying candidate was an amount equal to one half of the candidate's election expenses to a maximum of $20,940.50.

All candidates filed their returns respecting contributions received and election expenses incurred in the course of the by-election, duly audited, on or before August 16, 2001. On the 26th of October, 2001, the Office published in The Saskatchewan Gazette (Vol. 97, No. 43) a summary of candidate contributions received and expenditures incurred

[2] Pursuant to subsection 267(3) of the Act, auditing services rendered in respect of preparation of a report pertaining to a Registered Political Party's Return of Election Expenses is eligible for a maximum reimbursable allowance of $2,144.00.

[3] Pursuant to subsection 267(6) of the Act, auditing services rendered in respect of preparation of a report pertaining to a Candidate's Return of Election Expenses is eligible for a maximum reimbursable allowance of $696.00.

in Regina Elphinstone, as well as the amounts paid in respect of each candidate who qualified for reimbursement. Such contributions, expenditures and reimbursements are reported in Appendix III.

Orders and Authorizations of the Chief Electoral Officer

The Chief Electoral Officer may make exceptions to the Act's financial reporting provisions for election purposes for both registered political parties and candidates. In such instances, the Act under subsection 286(1), mandates that the Chief Electoral Officer report on the situation and events surrounding the order or authorization granted.

Pursuant to section 261 of the Act, the business manager for Mr. Brendan Cross (The First Nations Party of Saskatchewan) failed to file the Candidate's Election Expenses Return (Form E-412) within the prescribed time period for the by-election held on February 26, 2001. On June 11, 2001, Mr. Cross' business manager made formal application under subsection 263(1) to extend the time period for filing the said candidate's Form E-412. On June 11, 2001, the Chief Electoral Officer, pursuant to subsection 263(3), granted the aforementioned application and ordered the candidate's Form E-412 be filed with the Office by close of business on July 11, 2001. The constituency returning officer published, in prescribed form, a summary of Mr. Cross' return respecting candidate election expenses on August 23, 2001. See Appendix IV for the particulars regarding the aforementioned order.

Elections Saskatchewan Expenditures

The total cost of conducting the February 26, 2001 by-election in Regina Elphinstone was $117,212.91. This figure is inclusive of, and reported by, administrative and constituency expenditure. See Appendix V for an itemization of particular expenditures incurred in each of these two categories. Should further constituency expenditure specifics be required, refer to the Detail of Expenditures The Election Act, 1996 Provincial Constituencies Fiscal Year 2000-2001, tabled in the Legislative Assembly on November 15, 2001.

Documentation

Pursuant to section 232 of the Act, the Chief Electoral Officer is obliged to hold, in addition to the information contained in the Register of Political Parties, all original financial particulars concerning registered political parties' fiscal period and election expenses documentation for the purposes of public inspection. Also held are the returns and the original financial documentation regarding individual candidate election expenses, pursuant to section 262 of the Act. Such information is available for public inspection during regular office hours at Elections Saskatchewan.

OFFICE OF THE
CHIEF ELECTORAL OFFICER

Province of Saskatchewan

ORDER OF THE CHIEF ELECTORAL OFFICER

Circumstances in which application was made:

Pursuant to section 261 of The Election Act, 1996 (the "Act"), the business manager for the Brendan Cross campaign failed to file the Candidate's Election Expenses Return (Form E-412) for the by-election held on February 26, 2001, in the constituency of Regina Elphinstone. Due to extraordinary circumstances surrounding the availability of the named business manager the said candidate was unable to file the required Form on or before June 11, 2001. As a result, an extension for the filing deadline is required.

In my opinion, this circumstance makes the following authorization necessary:

Application of order:

This order of the Chief Electoral Officer applies to the following:

Extension of time to prepare and file the required election expenses return (Form E-412) of Brendan Cross, a candidate in the by-election held on February 26, 2001, in the constituency of Regina Elphinstone.

Exception provided by order:

Pursuant to subsection 263(3) of the Act, the Chief Electoral Officer grants the Brendan Cross application filed June 11, 2001, pursuant to subsection 263(1) of the Act. Specifically, the aforementioned campaign has thirty (30) days from close of business on June 11, 2001, to rectify their deficiency and meet the formal requirements of section 261 of the Act.
